GIVE HIM A LIFT.

I was trudging one day down a dusty road. While my back was curved under a bit of a load, and the way was long and my feet were sore, and my bones ached under the load I bore; But I struggled on in the summer's heat. Till I came to a pool where I bathed my feet. Then, resting a bit, I shouldered my load. And wended my way down the dusty road. The morning stretched into the afternoon—My journey's end seemed as far as the moon. Till at length a horse and wagon drew near, and my heart revived with a spark of cheer. But the man saw only his own small soul, and the narrow way to his narrow goal. And he whipped his horse to a giddy trot. Though the sand was deep and the day was hot, and he passed me by on the dusty road, and I sank still lower under my load. Yet out of the dust came another man, with a grizzled beard and a cheek of tan, and he pulled up short and gaily cried: "I say there, comrade, get in and ride!" And he placed my bundle behind the seat. And he said, "Climb in here and rest your feet; I never pass a man on the road, and I'm speechily, friend, if he's got a load." I reached my journey's end came the night, and my feet were rested, my heart was light. And I blessed the driver who'd gaily cried: "I say there, comrade, get in and ride." Ah! the world is full of sore-footed men who need a slight lift now and again. And the angels can see through the white cloud rift all the God-like souls who give them a lift.

WOMEN MAY AVOID OPERATIONS

By taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will prove how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement. Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for seven months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. Orville Rock, E. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has positively restored the health of thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

Miss Christie's work throughout the exercises was of the highest order and aroused the greatest enthusiasm. A play, 'The Three Graces,' in one act, was well acted, the characters all proving good. In this Miss Christie, who was the leading part, again proved popular. 'The Little Quakeresses,' an action song by the Minims, was very funny and kept the audience in a continuous uproar. 'The Last Rose of Summer,' a pantomime song, was a decided hit. The vocalist, Miss Margaret Hughes, has a voice of wonderful power and range, the highest notes being clear and sweet as a bell. 'Miss Christie delivered the valedictory in a beautiful manner. In bidding farewell to her schoolmates the wonderful pathos of her voice caused many to shed tears. Little Girls' Dresses at Big Price Savings

MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

PRUDENT mothers possessed of the desire to save both time and money will give glad welcome to this announcement, which tells of children's wear whose quality and workmanship is as true as the steel of Old Castile, and whose special prices are actually less than the cost of making them.

The idea of a mother taking needed time to make the children's clothes, or even have them made, when garments such as these can be bought so cheaply is almost ridiculous.

The time spent making a single garment like these little dresses, when figured at even a servant's wage scale, in dollars and cents, amounts to more than the price of the dresses—and that doesn't include the cost of material.

The materials in these dresses are as good as can be had and the making of them was done in clean, sanitary factories. They are the natty, neat, comfortable, button-all-down-the-back, substantial garments for children's summer wear of lawns, percales, madras and imported gingham. Every child needs a dozen, and at these prices all can have them.

The special selling of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will find them priced 60 and 75 cent dresses, ages two to fourteen years.

$1.25 and $1.50 dresses, sizes two to fourteen years, this sale
